PRC Center Director

Q: How long have you been at PRC?

A: I have been at the SE PRC for a little more than 4 years

Q: What is your Job title?

A: I am the center director, but I started out as an assistant to the director here.

Q: What do you enjoy most about serving at PRC?

A: What do I enjoy most - wow- I could go on for hours, so to just pick one thing is tough. I think being able to share Christ practically every day in some way with the women is the ultimate prize. If nothing else, letting someone know we love because Christ loved us is my true passion.

Q: What are your hobbies?

A: My hobbies are too many to name. A few of them are playing in an indie folk band with my husband, writing (I really hope to sell a screenplay one day), and I must confess that I am a TV re-run junkie .

Q: What is your favorite food?

A: My favorite food would have to be good old spaghetti .

Q: What is your favorite movie?

A: My favorite movie is Singing in the Rain. That reminds me - it's about time to watch it again.

Q: Tell us something about your family

A: I My family is pretty awesome. If I had one word to describe my family, I would say we are passionate. I'm married to Ben, the true love of my life. We've been married about 8 years, no kids yet, but we do have 2 cats who act like dogs. My parents live in Washington; my sister and brother-in-law in Virginia right now, expecting the first grandbaby in the family. My sister and I spent most of our teen years in Romania, which truly changed our family, and has had lasting impact on who we are today.

Q: How long have you been in the Portland area?

A: I've lived in the Portland area for about 4 years now, and hope to never leave. The creativity, the unique place that is Portland truly resonates with me. I have a deep burden for the people of Portland to know the love of Jesus, and I'm so glad I can play a tiny part in that endeavor.
